When You Say Nothing At All...

The Bible says, “Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you yourself will be just like him. Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes” (Proverbs 26:4-5).

Have you heard the country song “When You Say Nothing At All”? It was written by Paul Overstreet and Don Schlitz, but my favorite performance is by Allison Krause and Union Station. I know it’s a love song and it’s referring to the things we do without words that express devotion, but the last line of the chorus keeps echoing in my mind: “you say it best when you say nothing at all.” This phenomenon occurs most often when I’m scrolling through social media, and maybe it’s becoming a preventive mantra keeping my sarcastic nature locked down. Sometimes though, I punch right through the safety mechanism and share things I later regret. This happens in personal conversation and sermons too, of course. Do you know where I’m coming from on this? The challenge is real, daily, and spiritually potent.

Please read what Proverbs has to say about the power of our words to either destroy or build. I realize there are important moments and topics about which we should speak and make clear statements. However, it is possible to let our convictions become passionate agendas we must push, clarify and reassert at all costs. I may have something very good and important to say, but if I shout it to an empty room or one where everyone is wearing noise cancelling headphones labeled “I’ve heard it all before,” then all that crucial information and kinetic energy is wasted (Proverbs 9:7-9). I’m not suggesting we shouldn’t at least try to share the Gospel with someone who hasn’t heard it yet, even though they may be opposed to it. But Jesus did tell His disciples what to do when it was clear they weren’t being heard (Luke 9:5; 10:8-12). We’re not deciders of fate, we’re proclaimers of righteousness.

Maybe we should be more careful not to shut down the conversation by not listening compassionately. Maybe we should speak more with our actions than our words (James 1:19-20). Sometimes Jesus spoke volumes with silence (John 8:1-11; Acts 8:32). I wonder what we could accomplish if we were noticed first by our loving actions (John 13:34-35) and then prompted to share when a seeking heart is listening? I wonder if we say it best (even about the Gospel) when we say nothing at all?

Thoughts from Christ Wheat

My Wrath (Proverbs 20:22)

Truth: I'm freed from wrath when I trust in God's wrath!

- Wrath Earns Wrath (Pr. 10:12; 14:29; 17:9, 27; 20:22; 24:17-18; Mt. 5:27-28; Lk. 23:34; 1 Pt. 2:21-23)

- Trust in God's Wrath (Ps. 11:6; Pr. 20:22; 25:21-22; Mt. 5:43-47; 6:14-15; Rom. 12:19; Eph. 4:32)

- Lessons? (Jn. 18:8-11; 1 Pt. 2:18-25)

Bible Trivia

Answer: Who was the first disciple chosen by Jesus?
Simon Peter (John 1:42)
Question: Who wore the first bridal veil?

News & Prayer Requests

Our prayers and deep-felt condolences are with Alice Kirk and James Woodlock in the loss of their sister, Rose Lee Strunck.

Please continue praying for Ernest Turman as he battles pneumonia and they adjust his pacemaker. He's back home now, and thankful for you.

Please pray for Ginia Long's friend, Bridgett. She found out she has COVID-19.

Thank you for continually praying for Ever Johnson, Chris Wheat's nephew. He's finished with chemo and his port will be removed Tuesday!

Steve Moore is in St. Catherine's now. Not sure what they're going to do about his rotator cuff yet.
