Is There No God In Israel?

"Then he said to him, 'Thus says the Lord: Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die'" (2 Kings 1:16).

Ahaziah, the son of the wicked King Ahab, became king over Israel and Samaria. We learn of his character and life in 1 Kings 22:52,53. "He did evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; for he served Baal and worshipped him and provoked the Lord God of Israel to anger, according to all his father had done."

Yes, Ahaziah learned well the life style of his parents. He did evil in the sight of the Lord! He walked in the way of Ahab and Jezebel, his parents!

He also walked in the way of Jeroboam who set up idols in Dan and Bethel.

Not it came to pass that the king took a fall through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and he was injured. Ahaziah then sent messengers to Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, to find out if he would recover from his injury. An angel of God instructed Elijah to meet the messengers sent by the king with this message. "You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die" (2 Kings 1:4).

When the king heard this message and learned that Elijah was the prophet who had given the message he sent a captain and fifty men to capture Elijah. Elijah called down fire from heaven and consumed the soldiers. Another group was sent and they, too, were destroyed by fire. When the third captain and his men came they pleaded for their lives. Their lives were spared and the message of verse 16 was sent to the King again. Verse 17 reads, So Ahaziah died, according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken."

What lessons can we learn?

1. That children tend to follow the life style of parents.
2. There was and still is a great God.
3. His word cannot be broken or successfully opposed. Let us learn these lessons today and serve the God of heaven.

Loy Mitchell (Preaching the Word of God, 24-25)

Oh Ye of Little Faith (Pt. 2)

- How strong is our faith when the answer is “no” or “wait”?
 - John 9:31
 - Proverbs 15:29
 - Psalms 66:18
- Maybe we rationalize that we are being selfish (James 4:3).
- Or, maybe we have doubt or little faith (James 1:6).
- We have struggles in our minds.
 - Matthew 7:7
 - Matthew 6:8
- When we finally reach a point and think, “What did I do wrong?”
 - We have the example of Paul (2 Corinthians 12:7 – 10).
 - The final example: Mark 14:32
- What’s our response?
